Home Missions – Imagine starting a church in your home. That is what Josh and Amy Carter did after moving to Portland, Oregon. Remedy City Church, as it is now called, started with the Carter family (three kids) inviting people into their home to study the Bible. Now, there are 42 people that gather together in this home. God is doing a great work there. We have a part in this work as the Carters are supported through the Annie Armstrong Offering for Home Missions. This week, pray for the Carter family and Remedy City Church.
